LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

One lonely vagrant was the only case on the police court docket for this morning's court at midnight.
A very successful ball was given last evening at Bischoff's hall, on Eighteenth street, by the local boiler makers' union.
A large class will be confirmed in the church of the Immaculate Conception by Right Rev. Bishop Donahue tomorrow.

A number of new files, cases and desks were received at the postoffice yesterday from Washington City, and are being put in place.
Last evening the council committee on police met and approved bills aggregating about $308 on account of the police department and $93 for the city prison's expenses.

Information was made at the police headquarters last night that a colored man had assaulted "Pluggor" Condry, but few particulars were given and no arrest had been made at a late hour.

The large mirror for S. Brubaker's new Wigwam saloon, which was delayed in its arrival, came yesterday. The place will be formally opened on Monday. The private rooms upstairs are all fitted up ready for use, and are very cozy and attractive.

Night before last at a picnic given by the Shield of Honor, at Whitman's Grove, a watch was stolen from a Benwood man. The officers of that town recovered it yesterday, and a North Benwood man was arrested charged with the theft.

Yesterday the Welsh Congregational Sunday school, of Elanville, had a very enjoyable picnic at Wheeling park. They returned home last evening in six or eight special cars on the electric railway, and attracted much attention as they passed along the streets.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

Among the Wheeling people who will go to Atlantic City on the B. & O. Elks excursion via the Pennsylvania lines, next Monday afternoon, are the following: M. Heyman, R. L. Beard, G. Emshier, M. Kraus, Edward Larkin and Mrs. Larkin, his mother; C. R. Tracy, the Misses Tappan, L. Stein, George Busch, T. M. Garvin, D. Brannon, Mrs. I. G. Dillon. In addition a party of Mountville Elks will join the Wheeling crowd.

A letter has been received from Mr. P. Bachmann, of this city, who was one of the lookers-on at the great display at Kiel on the occasion of the opening of the new ship canal. He is very enthusiastic about the show there, and says that none of the other nations' vessels were "in it" with the war ships of the United States.

A. L. Prichard, of Mannington, autographed at the McClure yesterday.

Squire Fitzpatrick's family will leave to-day for a lengthy visit to friends in the country.

Mr. P. H. Dobbins leaves this morning for Cambridgeboro Springs, Pa., and other eastern points.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kyle, and Mrs. M. Marcus left over the Pan-Handle for Boston yesterday afternoon.

Miss Kate Ellsworth, of Martin's Ferry, has taken a position in the office of the Wheeling corrugating works.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bowman, of Butler, Pa., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. G. G. Bancroft, at the McClure.

Colonel John W. Mitchell left yesterday for Cambridgeboro, Pa., where he will recuperate at the celebrated springs.

Mr. George E. Johns, of Dayton, O., formerly a prominent Wheeling merchant, is visiting friends here for a few days.

Fred Strauser, a former employe of the Hobbs glass factory, has been selected as a delegate to the national convention of glassworkers at Toledo this month.

A large delegation of Christian Endeavor delegates will leave for Boston next Monday. Many of the delegates from the interior of the state will come to Wheeling and go over the Pennsylvania road.

Mr. Martin Thornton, the old-time restaurateur, is presiding over G. E. Vankouren's Market street place for a few weeks, while the proprietor is off on a vacation. He looks familiar in a dining room, and is warmly greeted by old friends.

United States Marshal Garden had about completed arrangements to go to Atlantic City, when he received last night a telegram from the vicinity of the Pocomoke mining troubles, asking him to come there at once, as fresh trouble had broken. No particulars were given. He will leave on the Ohio River train this morning.

NICHOLSON OUT AND IN.

He Gives Ball in $2,500 and is Released, and Leaves

BUT IS CAUGHT UP AT WELLSBURG

And Brought Back—The Mystery About His Case Deepens—He Will Be Taken to New Martinsville For Trial To-day—A Much Larger Nominal Value Now Involved Than Before—The Papers He Shipped Away Were Recovered.

There is evidently a great deal more in the case of E. L. Nicholson, spoken of in yesterday's INTELLIGENCER, than has yet been even hinted at. There was a long conversation by telephone between Wheeling and Chicago parties yesterday, as a result of which L. F. Stifel, of the Wheeling Title and Trust Company, finally signed Mr. Nicholson's bail bond for $2,500, and the prisoner was released. He took the Pan-Handle train shortly after 3 o'clock, having bought a ticket for Steubenville. At 6:25 last night he was brought back by Town Sergeant Brown, of Wellsburg, who had intercepted him on the train on an order sent from Wheeling by telephone.

The rearrest was made as the result of a second warrant sworn out by Ferdinand Brown before Squire Gillespy. Mr. Brown is an oil operator. He charged Nicholson with stealing papers of the value of $25,000. While all the parties interested are very reticent about the case, it is understood that the alleged theft was committed at the same time as the one charged by William Carr against Mr. Nicholson, on which the first arrest was made on Thursday. The story is that last Tuesday Nicholson entered a room in the first house, at New Martinsville, opened a valise belonging to one of the Carr Brothers, and took from it the papers concerned in the two charges against him. A man named Thompson also enters into the transaction, as he is said to have been seen with the papers under his arm. He is described as the brother of the president of an alcohol manufacturing company of Chicago, to which company the Carrs and Brown are also understood to belong, and a story is also told that Nicholson is a detective employed by Thompson and others interested on his side of a controversy about oil property. This is as near as the truth can be gotten at, so far, from a Wheeling standpoint.

When the second warrant was issued yesterday it was put into the hands of ex-Chief R. T. McNichol, who received it too late to catch Nicholson here, but at once telephoned to Chief Brown, of Wellsburg, who boarded the train on its arrival there. By the time he had found his man the train was again in motion. He told Nicholson he was under arrest, but the latter rather emphatically said no, and rather seemed to be of the opinion that he would not get off the train, but when the officer pulled the bell rope and drew a gun, Nicholson smilingly acceded to the invitation to "come along." He was turned over to McNichol on his arrival here, and Squire Gillespy formally gave him into the custody of the officer to be taken to New Martinsville this morning. For safe keeping, he was lodged in jail over night. This morning Capt. McNichol and W. B. Lukins will take him down to New Martinsville, where there is understood to be a warrant waiting.

Word was received yesterday that the bundle of papers which is the bone of contention had been held in the hands of the Adams Express Company at Chicago by William M. Carr, who arrived there just in time. There are signs of "big money" behind both parties to the controversy. Nicholson had a check for a large sum cashed before he left the city, and it was said last night that he would be able to give bond in any sum when finally arraigned.

Warned Out of Town.

Mrs. Thomas Walters and her two children and her brother-in-law, William Walters, who left the smallpox district in Wheeling to evade the disease, and have been at the home of James Craver, on South Second street, Martin's Ferry, since Tuesday, left town at 1 o'clock yesterday. Health Officer Pier Coleman interviewed them yesterday and gave them until 2 o'clock to get out of town, and they left at the hour stated. They seemed to be perfectly healthy, but said that an eighteen-year-old brother of William Walters is down with the smallpox on Eighteenth street, in Wheeling. However, they claimed that they had not been staying in the same house. The husband of Mrs. Walters, who is an iron worker, visited her on Tuesday evening and left some money.

A new case has developed on Fifteenth street in the family of Mr. E. Wagner.

Elks Excursion to Atlantic City via B. & O.

The Elks and their friends will go to Atlantic City via Baltimore & Ohio, Monday, July 8. Fare, $10 for the round trip, tickets good returning fifteen days. Those desiring sleeping car space, should leave their names with Mr. R. C. Hansa, who will accompany the excursion, or telephone Mr. T. C. Burke, Baltimore & Ohio ticket agent. J. T. LANE, T. P. A.

THE EYES.

It has been demonstrated that there is more to be had from the defects of refraction and the use of glasses, not properly adjusted than from all other causes, and that it is absolutely necessary to have the eyes scientifically and skillfully examined and fitted with glasses to secure relief and prevent injury.

Those needing spectacles, or their eyes tired or head aches when reading or sewing can consult and have their eyes examined for glasses without charge by Prof. Sheff, the Scientific Optician, 1110 Main street, next door to Snook & Co.

Men, women and boys of all nationalities, all parties, all religions, like to outdo each other in showing their patriotism on the Glorious Fourth. This year the red, white and blue will be displayed more than ever. Get one of THE HUB'S Souvenirs and you'll be in the swim.

One free to every purchaser July 3 and until noon July 4th.

Don't pass judgment until you see the goods. The values are here, just as we state. It may seem incredible that we will sell you a Suit for $9.65 that we value at $12 and $15, but the fact remains. The garments can be seen in our large south corner window, and in our Men's Clothing department any time after 8 o'clock this (Monday) morning. TO BE SURE THERE IS A LOSS SOMEWHERE, but don't worry about that so long as you are benefited. The transaction is simply in accordance with our fixed rule, NEVER to carry goods to another season. This price and value will prevail for one week.

A WORD OF CAUTION!

Our experience is that in sales of this character the best is the first to go. You will therefore be wise to come early.

A Good Sandwich

Must be as good inside as outside. No matter how fine the bread, if the butter is "strong" and the filling "off" what a poor lunch it'll make.

And so with CLOTHING. You don't see the "insides," the 1001 things which determines the wear of the garments—good or bad—they're there. With us always good—for instance, take our new $9.00 Black and Blue Worsted Suits. The cloth is strong, the garments well cut, the dye warranted—so much for the "outside." Now for the "filling." The silk and linings and thread and buttons are of the very best, of course. Back of all, the closest inspection that no faults shall escape discovery. And then the price, $9.00
